

Modern Day Anti-Slavery & Human Trafficking Statement

Modern Day Anti-Slavery & Human Trafficking Statement for Ferrous Protection Ltd for the financial year ending 31 March 2024

Although Ferrous Protection Ltd is not required to make this statement in accordance with section 54 of the Modern Slavery Act because of its turnover threshold not being met, we do so, in order to set out the steps that we have taken to ensure compliance with the provisions of the Act.

About Us

Ferrous Protection Limited was founded in 1987 and has since developed a strong reputation and name synonymous with delivering high quality workmanship; in particular with surface preparation and application of protective linings in the Petrochemical and Oil & Gas Industries.

Supply Chain

Our suppliers are principally related to the provision of corrosion protection paints, goods, and associated services such as banking, plant and equipment hire, vehicle servicing and administration, together with arrangements for the health, safety & wellbeing of our employees.

Our Commitment

Ferrous Protection Ltd is committed to transparency within our business practices, to ensure that there is no evidence of any act of modern day slavery or human trafficking within the organisation.

Ferrous Protection Ltd is further committed to ensuring that there is no modern day slavery or human trafficking in our supply chain.

Steps we have taken

Within the financial year ending 31 March 2024, Ferrous Protection Ltd have implemented a Modern Day Anti-Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy. This Policy was reviewed in February 2024 to ensure that it remains suitable, and fit for purpose.

The Policy forms part of a suite of transparent policies, which include:
